

Name-Malik

Title-Tom Gates Is Absolutely Fantastic

Author-Liz Pichon

Background/ The setting

Tom Gates is set in a child's point of view In our the modern day world where we see him living the life of an average child where he goes to school with his best friend.The story is also set in England as the author Liz Pichon is a British Citizen and is a fiction book for kids around the age of 6 and over years old

Summary- (The plot, characters etc)

This story has a handful of characters that become more noticeable the more you read the story with our main character being Tom Gates with him being in a family of 4 with his mother and his father and finally his sister who him and her annoy each other like normal cartoon or non fiction siblings Ar school there is a few characters being his best friend and his two other friends making them a group and also a girl that Tom Gates fancies and finally someone who annoys him as bad as his sister who is Marcus which is always annoying him or trying to compete with him in any way possible

Audience recommendation

I recommend this to kids 6 and over in age as it is a comedy show and can be enjoyed by the likes of teenagers too making it a great book for most ages of children anywhere in the world as long as they can read English